

Subject: ^{0A1} All MURASCHKO, Pavel ☐ ☐
Source: 16 Ihor Zubenko AECASSOWARY-43
Date: 15 June 1970

DECLASSIFIED AND RELEASED BY CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
SOURCE METHOD EXEMPTION 3B2B
NAZI WAR CRIMES DISCLOSURE ACT
DATE 2007

1. On 27 Mar 1970, next day after his arrival in Prešov, CSSR, Source visited All at his home, and then they had two meetings outdoors, on 29 and 30 March, respectively.

Following is the gist of what they discussed, after they had exchanged the recognition signs.

2. At the present All had no literature to be picked up on the spot. Also in the Ukraine there were no new political materials though he knew that there was some purely literary stuff like poetry^{etc}. Next time when Source comes to visit him he hopes to be able to give him something. How much and what he could not say as he did not know yet what he would get from Ukraine. All visited Lvov and Kiev last fall and planned to go to Ukraine again in July 1970 by car or by train.

3. All was not sure how it will be in the future with political samvydav since people in the Ukraine did not know themselves what to do at the present along this line. According to All, there are two different lines of thinking on samvydav; the group around Ivan Dziuba and Ivan Switlychny are for temporary cessation of samvydav- production whereas those around Chornovil are for its continuation and perhaps even its intensification.

4. All knew about Dziuba's affair and his declaration of 26 Dec 1969 and considered it as a victory for Dziuba and his colleagues. He did not seem, however, to know all the details. Referring to I.I. Bass's article against Dziuba in Radianske Literaturoznavstvo of Jan 1970, All suggested that Sochasnist or some other magazine should give "proper answer" to it.

5. All wanted to know how it is going to be now with finances. The situation on the spot became more difficult and he and others are in need of larger support.

6. All asked to bring next time a small taperecorder for Dziuba. Allegedly, Dziuba himself asked him for it.

7. All wants to keep the agreement between himself, Melnyk Group and Prolog, intact also in the future. He complained, however, that whereas

Melnyk Group always follows his and his friends instructions and complies with their wishes and demands, the Prolog has "its own policy" in everything; in publishing the materials, in checking on them etc.

Also Melnyk Group gives him a much larger financial support.

8. All stressed that in his view most of the literature and books sent to Ukraine ~~were~~ ^{sent from the West} landing in KGB's "special funds" and he suggested that one should restrict mailing to both, Ukraine and the satellites.

As far as USSR is concerned, also there less literature is being now delivered even to official addressees (schools, institutes, libraries, press etc) than before.

All also did not recommend to send to Svydnyk from the West ^{the} Ukrainian youth to the Festival of Ukrainian Song and Dance scheduled for 20 and 21 June 1970 since ^{this year} the authorities would be especially alert and ready with all kind of provocations.

9. From Bratislava came recently instructions to the University, party committee, and other organizations in Presov to implement the purge of unreliable elements and All was afraid that he might be touched by it too. He expressed the fear that he might be arrested and therefore had to be very careful. At the University they plan to sacrifice Mykola MUSHYNKA and thus save the others.

Most concerned are the party members because "they will be on the first front of the purge". That's why All was also afraid. So far there were no arrests but they might come any day. Particularly now, after "they" implemented the first phase of the purge among Slovaks and ~~Czechs~~ and could turn now to Ukrainians, and other minorities.

10. All suspected Yuri BACHA to have changed the ~~sides~~ again and was collaborating now with ^{the} SB. The same was probably also the case with Levko DOVHOVYCH.

Sviatoslav NIRODA was approached by the SB still last summer but refused to work for them. The SB officer suggested he would let NIRODA go to Munich, to the ^{Ukrainian} Students Conference, provided he agrees to report on it.

11. Igor KALYNETS of Lvov asked not to print him in the West, nor in Presov.

12. The books and other literature Source had with him he left with his other contacts. All emphasized that he had to keep his house now completely clean.

13. All and Source , on the former's suggestion, agreed on a new set of recognition signs.